

What will I study?

You will access a wide range of literature and texts and learn how to use language to express and understand complex ideas with a sophisticated level of language.

What skills will I develop?

- the ability to express and communicate meaning at a high level of sophistication
- the ability to communicate in writing at a high level of sophistication
- deepen awareness of language and how it works, taking account of style, grammar, structure and idiom, and local or regional influences on language
- the ability to analyse and evaluate texts from different genres
- an awareness of translating from written English to written Gàidhlig and interpreting from spoken Gàidhlig to spoken or written English
- the ability to interact with an individual or group in Gaelic-related issues and engage in individual and group study of topics of a historical or cultural nature
- apply high-order thinking
- develop advanced critical literacy
- an ability to learn independently
- an ability to plan and research, integrating and applying language skills, for a range of purposes including independent study

How will I be assessed?

The external exam consists of 2 papers

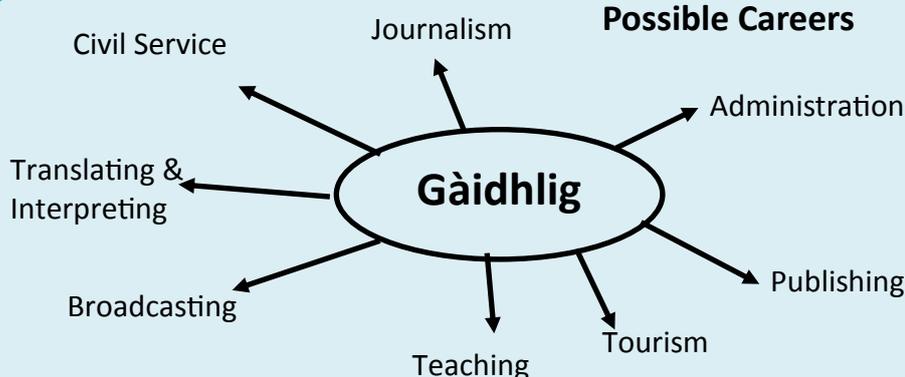

-
Paper 1 Practical Criticism	30 marks
Paper 2.1 Literature	20 marks
Paper 2.2 Writing	20 marks

A performance talking will be completed and assessed within the department.

This is worth 30 marks and is included in the student's overall result.

Need more info? -

Possible Careers

What help is Advanced Higher Gàidhlig after school?

- Higher education, including degree-level subject study of Gàidhlig and related subject studies such as literature, education and journalism
- Further education, including courses in media and journalism
- Employment in careers that require high levels of communication and thinking skills