Whole School

- Highland Council are bidding for Inverness to be the UK City of Culture in 2029 and the process has gone well so far- we are the only area in Scotland to have been shortlisted. The next stage of the bid needs to be in by 10th August and really needs the voice of our children and young people to influence the design of the bid. Although it is Inverness that is named, if we are successful this will provide significant funding to develop cultural activities that will benefit current and future generations. We have been invited to send a small group of pupils and a member of staff to a Highland wide assembly to capture pupils' ideas which is taking place at Eden Court on Monday 29th June, 10 am – 3pm. If you would like to be part of helping shape this bid, please give your name to your Year Head by Tuesday at 2pm. Successful candidates will be called down on Wednesday to collect a letter. Could any member of staff interested in attending, please let me know asap.
